TERRY'S TIDBITS
 Today we gather to celebrate Christ. We come to worship our Savior. We gather as sinners saved by grace who obey our Lord in baptism and gather each week to worship. However, today we gather for services to honor and remember His resurrection. This event sets our faith apart from any other religion in the world. Only within the Christian faith does a living Savior exist. Our Savior sits at the right hand of the Father to make intercession for us. Our Savior will return as King of Kings and Lord of Lords. Our Savior cares for us. Our Savior answers our prayers. Our Savior listens to and carries our burdens. Our Savior provides the grace we need to live each day. What a Savior! O' Hallelujah. If you do not have a relationship with this Savior I plead with you to do so today.

Bro. Terry

 Spring Creek Family, Thank you so much for the outpouring of love. Your prayers, beautiful cards, & well wishes have truly lifted our spirits. We especially appreciate your support as Barbie recovers from her two surgeries. Knowing we have our church family behind us has made all the difference. We are so grateful to be part of such a wonderful caring church.
 Sincerely, Barbara & Eddy Bowman
