The Callahan Family deeply appreciates your prayers, kindness, support and love you have shown to us during the difficult days. It will always be remembered from our church family. The family of Debra Ramsey & Novalene Callahan

We have an over abundance of dishes in the fellowship hall. They are left over from meals we have had at the church.

If you think you may have left one of yours, please check on the cabinet as you go into the fellowship hall from the children's hallway. Thank you, the kitchen committee.

TERRY'S TIDBITS

Each year we come to the time that our children promote in their Sunday School and Wednesday night classes. Today we celebrate with them. As they grow, they get closer to that age where they think about their salvation. The parents concern is that they understand, and it so for all of us. We want to pray for the teachers, students and parents during the joyous time of promotion.

We also will once again have the occasion to observe a baptism. Baptism matters. It does not save, but it does tell the world that you have believed. Believer's baptism by immersion by the authority of a New Testament church calls out to the world that Jesus saves and people respond and obedience goes forward. This answer of a good conscience toward God allows all to see the power and glory of God. The believer walks in newness of life.

With each passing day, we draw closer to Fall. Fall is the time of year for harvest. Let us pray for more laborers for the field. For the fields are white to harvest.

Bro. Terry
