Sept 14: Tommy & Johnnie Pevytoe

Thank you Spring Creek members for all of your support during my husband's illness and death. The Manna ministry and Benevolence committee were there for us, and so many of you called, texted, visited, and held James and me in your prayers. I have a wonderful pastor and church family, and I never felt alone. Gwen Draper

TERRY'S TIDBITS

Our service today begins with the wonderful ordinance of baptism. If you have been immersed in the waters of baptism then you know its meaning. We each profess Christ as our Savior. Then and only then can we be immersed in the waters of baptism. We tell the world we have been forgiven of our sin. We have been born again. Then we rise to walk in newness of life. We tell that same world we will live for Jesus from that moment forward. As we see the picture again, let us remind ourselves of what it means. Let us renew our commitment to be holy. Let us once again take the time to tell another of the grace of God. Let us rejoice that we belong to Jesus.

Tonight is a 5th Sunday night. So we do not have normal services. Take this time to go see that person you have put off for so long to go see. It may be a relative, a long time friend, or a former pastor that you desire to encourage. Take the time to either go or pray for them.

Bro.Terry
