TERRY'S TIDBITS

What a joyous service we had last week. We had one come for baptism. That will occur this morning as we start our worship. Tonight we will observe the Lord's Supper. This means we will see both ordinances in one day. These church ordinances remind us of why Jesus came. They reveal to us that He died, was buried, and rose again for our salvation. The sin debt has been paid. The immersion in water uncovers the death, burial and resurrection. The candidate submits and we watch as we observe the death to sin and then to rise in newness of life. The Supper tells us of the shed blood of Jesus. It speaks of His broken, sinless, body given for our sins. What a joy to see them both. Make certain you are in the service tonight so you can participate.

Christmas reminds us each year of the love of God for this world. Hebrews 12:1-2 tells us that instead of the joy set before Him, Jesus came to this world. We celebrate the incarnation of Christ in human form. Philippians 2:5-11 tells us Jesus took nothing away from God and endured the cross for us. The love we experience at Christmas started in the heart of God. Let us share that love with our friends and neighbors.

Bro. Terry
