TERRY'S TIDBITS

Spiritual courage comes in a variety of forms. The courage to stand against sin. This requires a humble spirit, knowing that we all sin. The courage to study. This demands time, effort, faith and a willingness to be punctual. The courage to lead your family. This means being in church, prayer, guidance and the effort to live a Biblical life. Most of all the spiritual courage to witness and practice outreach on purpose. We are often hesitant to mention our faith to others. We fear a bad response. We fear rejection. When in reality we need to have the foresight to understand the need in the lives of others. We need to approach outreach with humility, grace, love and kindness. However, with that in our heart and mind we must have the desire to tell others the story of Jesus. Methods we have learned may help, but most of all the willingness to speak to another about Christ is necessary. Let me encourage you to practice a purposeful outreach. Many of our friends need Christ. Many who know Christ need a gentle nudge to return to church. Many need to be reminded to be faithful.

Will you be the witness God asks us all to be?

Because I care,

Bro. Terry
