TERRY'S TIDBITS

Our year is half over as I write this. Our nation is 249 years old. So we can ask some questions that we all need to answer. What will the remainder of the year be like? Will I ask God to change my attitude towards another person so I can help them? Will I be willing to forgive a person who has hurt me for the sake of the Lord? Can I invite a friend to church? Will I ask God for the courage to witness to someone? Will I pray more? Will I finish reading my Bible through? Will I ask my spouse to help me be a better person? Will I be positive towards my children and encourage them more? Will I take the time to look inside my soul and ask God to transform my heart to one seeking to believe and do more for the Lord? Will I ask God to revive my heart? Will I seek His kingdom? Will I build my house on a rock called Jesus?

These questions when answered will tell us a lot about our hearts? Will we listen to the answers?

Just asking

Bro.Terry
