TERRY'S TIDBITS

Thanksgiving has come and gone. Sunday brought blessings with one being saved. Today will be her baptism and our need to be supportive and encouraging for her. We need to be the church she will need for her life. Let us make that commitment to her.

Christmas will arrive faster than we think. We will have a month full of hustle and bustle. But let us also have a month of stopping to remember the birth of our Savior. December 7, Sunday Night, will be our regular observance of the Lord's Supper. We start the month celebrating his birth with the symbol of His death, burial and resurrection. This puts the whole life of Jesus in focus. Without a virgin birth there is no sinless sacrifice. Without His death, burial and resurrection there is not salvation. There would be no ordinance of remembrance. So the whole story is needed. So let us make sure we see the whole picture. Let us remind ourselves of each part.

Many of our number are facing surgery and treatments this month. Do not forget to pray for them all.

Bro. Terry
