To my Spring Creek Church family, I would like to thank you all for your cards, calls, text, but most of all your prayers on my behalf during my most recent back surgery.

Words cannot truly express the gratitude that we have for each and every one of you. God has blessed us with a wonderful church family and you show His love in all you say and do. May God bless you all as you continue to be an encouragement to others as you have been to us.

TERRY'S TIDBITS

What a wonderful day of worship we had this past Sunday. This is one of those weeks we were glad to be in the house of the Lord. Thank you choir, Bro. Justin Coburn, Tara Johnson, Deacons and all who made our worship decent and in order. What an honor to serve a church whose focus is the worship of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Today is a fifth Sunday. This means we have no service tonight. This is so you can visit someone or check on a loved one and have the time to do it. Spring Creek has done this long before I came to be pastor. It is a time to reflect and catch up. I will be with the Saline MBC in Tull tonight at 5:00 p.m. speaking on the various prophecies of Daniel and Revelation that link. Please pray for your pastor.

The message today will be different. Please pray that God will use Spring Creek to impact our world.

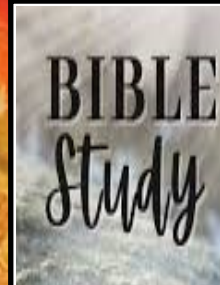

Bro. Terry
