TERRY'S TIDBITS

This week we celebrate the joy of work. Labor Day asks us to focus attention on those who work and produce. Adam worked the garden of Eden. All through Scripture we are told to work and provide for our families. We will be worse than an infidel if we do not provide for our families. We work on this earth. We work by the sweat of the brow because of Adam's sin. We also work for the Lord. Our works display our faith. When we think of good works, we must give thanks to God for the health and ability to serve God. James tells us that works manifest the glory of God and that works allow the world to see how God changes us. We are to serve God with joy.

This month brings the first hints of fall. Take note of those we have not seen in a few weeks because of summer activities. Give them a call and tell them they are missed. Keep on praying for our church and for those who need our prayers.
