TERRY'S TIDBITS

Each week we have many distractions to keep us from serving God. Yet we have a choice each day as we face these distractions. We can see them and choose to walk away from them and serve God. This of course would be the wise and best choice. Yet at times we refuse, and allow the distractions to interfere with our service to God. As a child of God, the time has arrived to allow the distractions to diminish and God and His kingdom to advance.

We need to pray more. We need to witness more. We need to invite more people to services. We need to be aware of the need to be kind, forgiving and caring. We need to make certain that worship and attendance at church takes a priority. We need to demonstrate to our children, grandchildren, friends and neighbors that God comes first in our lives. The joy of serving God comes when we are motivated by our love for Him and for His church. Perfection is not the goal but faithfulness is the goal. We are to be faithful servants of God. Take the time to be faithful to God first.

Bro. Terry

Spring Creek Family, Thank you so much for your prayers, cards, texts, food, encouragement and just plain kindness since my shoulder surgery.

It means so much to have your support during troubled times. When both of our daughters had health scares recently, you were there for us as well. God bless you all!

With much love, Tami Tackett
