Terry's Tidbits

Today we celebrate the resurrection of our Savior. The world has never been the same since that early morning discovery of an empty tomb. No matter how much the world tries to deny it, it remains a transforming event. Because Jesus lives He sits on the right hand of the Father on high to make intercession for our sins. He mediates between the Father and each of us. We find forgiveness of sin because Jesus accomplished the payment for our sin when he died on the cross and rose again.

Our celebration this week will be different from most years. We will watch a Facebook live message. We will need to sing in our homes. We will be in prayer for our nation. We will realize the traditions of our faith matter. We will see that the traditions in our homes matter. We will also see how the world ignores the importance and impact of His resurrection.

Take the time this day and this week to put the power and love of our resurrected Lord into the life of a friend.

Bro. Terry
