TERRY'S TIDBITS

Today we celebrate the Passion Week of Jesus. He comes into the city of Jerusalem to the shouts of Hosanna. We come to worship today with the desire for His soon return. Our world finds itself in deep trouble. People abandon God at every turn in the road. We must look down the road and see the return of Christ. As we read the story of the Passion Week may we be reminded of the payment Jesus made on the cross for us all. Read the stories this week found in the gospels. Observe the level of commitment Jesus had. See the depth of love that kept Him lashed to the cross. It was His love for us, His love for the Father and His understanding of our need that kept Him there. Let me urge you to read the gospels this week, especially the last 4 chapters in each of the books. You will find how much it cost God and how much love and grace comes our way.

Invite someone to our Easter Service.

Remember our special Easter Offering as well.

Bro. Terry
