TERRY'S TIDBITS

As I write, it is the first day of a new month. It holds 31 days of sunrises and sunsets. It holds the anticipation of Christmas morning for children. It enables us as a church once again to observe the Lord's Supper tonight. It allows many of our classes to have fellowships. It gives each one of us days to remember and reflect on the birth of Jesus. It will allow our choirs to exalt our Lord in song and vivid imagery of a Christ child. It will remind the world of the eternal hope found only in the coming and return of Jesus.

The month holds the reminders of a year past. The changes that year has brought. The challenges of a New Year to come. The anticipation of new births and the sadness of loss come within those reminders and challenges. Yet in Christ we have hope. The confident expectation that God will always be present in our lives. He enables us to enjoy this life, anticipate the next life and do so with the confidence of His love in our lives.

Take the time during this new month and end of the year to reflect on our Lord. Take the time to look forward to the blessings of God in a new year. Let your faith grow.

Bro. Terry
