"The church can seldom resurrect what the home puts to death. The very best proof of the genuineness of your Christianity occurs within the framework of your home. If you must become over involved - become over involved in your role as a character builder in the home. Believe me - the church will stay healthy and strong as long as its homes are healthy and strong. God's priority system seems to begin at the grassroots level - at home. Cultivate that soil with care." Harold Parrish

Hello Golden Hearts! I just received notice of your very thoughtful donation to the Spring Creek Church Library in honor of Kelly. Thank you so much for your thoughtfulness in remembering him this way. He truly loved Spring Creek and thought highly of the senior members who were a part of his family there. Your hearts are truly golden. Your hearts are truly golden. Love, Judith Orrick

TERRY'S TIDBITS

Little things can often bring about great joy in our life. This past Sunday was filled with things that should bring joy to our hearts. Bro. Don Birch sang for the first time since he has been a member here. What a blessing to hear him sing and what a wonderful song he chose. Our hearts were lifted high. We had a wonderful new member luncheon. We had about 160 people present and the meal was outstanding. Let me thank all who made this possible with the hard work done to provide it all. Sunday night we were able to enjoy the Lord's Supper. The ordinance means more each time we celebrate it. Sister Judy Conley was back in our service after almost two years of dealing with loss and illness. What a joy to have members be able to return to services. These little things may seem simple, but they have enabled us all to enjoy our fellowship even more.

This week is VBS please pray for the workers, teachers, students and Ms. Linda. We hope souls will be saved and lives uplifted.

Bro. Terry
