TERRY'S TIDBITS

This week is Father's day. We set this day aside each year to honor and remember those men who shaped our lives. Some of us have wonderful memories. Some, sadly, have painful memories. All who are born again have a heavenly Father who is loving, kind and faithful. Our heavenly Father knows our needs and meets them. Let us strive to take the message of a gracious and loving Father to a world that does not seem to know this. So many children today suffer so much because of the lack of an earthly father who will train them. We need to look around and see those who need this help and stand in the gap. So many do not know the love and guidance of an earthly father. Grandfathers and uncles can rise to the occasion to help those young people. Most of all we can point them to Jesus. Please pray for the meeting of the messengers of the American Baptist Association this week. Our meeting will last from Monday night to Thursday afternoon. Your pastor is an officer and so is Bro. Edgar Sutton. We ask for your prayers. I will return Thursday night late. Bro. Muncy Harris will be in charge of Wednesday night services.

Bro. Terry
