TERRY'S TIDBITS

Once again the calendar has arrived at Mother's Day. It is a day we set aside to remember those we call mom. Mothers see our faces first. They will wash our face often. They will call us the cutest of all babies. They will pat our face when we are sad. They will look us in the eyes when we need help. Our mothers will clothe us, scold us, love us and feed us. Our mothers will sew our clothes, fix our lunches, make us do homework and send us outside to play. They will teach us, chasten us, show us how to do things and love us no matter how many dumb things we do. Our mothers teach by example, word and work and will demand our best. Our mothers care for us when our stomach hurts, our hearts hurt and will forgive us when we break their heart. They will give you the last bite of a pie or a ice cream cone. They will get up in the middle of the night to make sure you are warm or why your tummy hurts. They will rock you to sleep, tell you go to sleep and when to wake up. They will make you go to school, clean your room. They will love you without reservation and punish you if you do wrong. All the while they worry about you. They wonder if you listen. They pray for you and want you to be a child of God and trust in Jesus. They never cease to care. These are the thoughts of a mother. Yet most of us go on about our day. Your mother worries as long as she lives. She is proud of you and would change many things about you while she lets you live your life. She is just Mom. Love her well.

Bro. Terry
