Terry's Tidbits

Each week we will have worship services at 10:00 a.m. on Sunday. Wednesday night will remain online only. Make these services a matter of prayer. As you feel comfortable about getting out, do your best to be in the services. We hope to be back to our regular schedule in June, but this remains to be seen.

Thank you once again for your continued offerings each week. Your love and generosity help in these times. Our prayer should be for a swift and joyous return to services.

A word of thanks to Bro. Marque Black and Rick Ferris for working to insure the online services each week go well. The technology seems to be working fine. We still have a few glitches, but those are kept to a minimum.

Take the time this week to check on those in your Sunday School class and those you sit around in worship. We have people willing to help with things if they are needed. Simply contact us here at the office and we will see to it that it is taken care of. Thanks to those who have volunteered to do this.

Bro. Terry
