Terry's Tidbits

What a joy to be in our services again this past Sunday. Remember we are seeking to do our best to follow the guidelines for the virus. Thanks to all who are doing so. Thanks to all who keep on giving and praying for our church. Thanks to all who do their very best in our services in the music, care and concern.

Each week we hope a few more will be able to come. Remember we are not passing the offering plate. They are at the entry doors into the auditorium. We sanitize the bathrooms each week. We have masks for those who do not have one. We ask everyone to sit every other pew. You have been so cooperative in this. Also we have hand sanitizer in the foyer. We ask everyone to social distance and to refrain from hugs. We have had no one in the church to test positive for which we are thankful. So come, enjoy the services and the fellowship. If you are not comfortable yet, we understand.

Please begin to make your plans to be in our services. It will take a few weeks for everyone to be comfortable returning. Please remember the joy of serving God. Please allow the fear to go away by understanding the reality of the virus not the panic of the fear. Do not allow panic to determine your life. Be careful and cautious. But be willing to understand the facts over the fear.

Bro. Terry
